

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Inga Loberg, and we are richer because Inga lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Inga was born November 27, 1907, to John and Ingebor Loberg at their family farm near Hillhead, South Dakota, in Marshall County; and,

Whereas, Inga enjoys watching baseball on television and hearing the news of the day, which keeps her mind sharp and knowledgeable of many subject areas; and,

Whereas, Inga resides at Wheatcrest Manor in Britton, South Dakota, and will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather on November 24, 2007, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

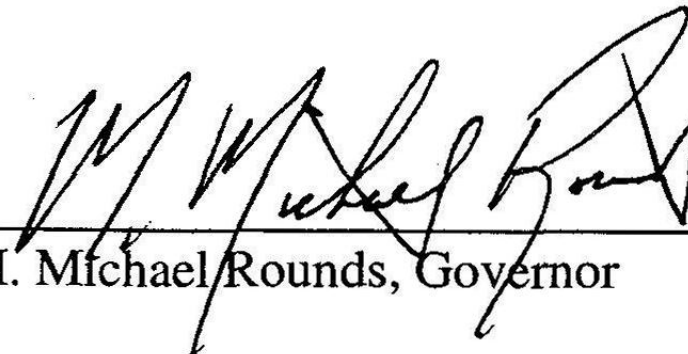

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 27, 2007, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
